

WIN YOUR WEDDING ENTERTAINMENT

10th January 2011, Jason Fallon Management

Is it possible to make the most important day of your life that little bit more special? It certainly is if you don't have to pay for your entertainment! Corporate and Wedding Entertainer, Jason Fallon, has decided to give one lucky Bride and Groom the opportunity to win their Wedding Day Entertainment, to co-incide with the launch of his new website www.jasonfallon.ie.

Jason has been in the music industry for the past 15 years, having played the length and breadth of the country with the Conquerors, Louise Morrissey and with Joe Dolan as a drummer.

In 2007 Jason launched his own show to great acclaim and each year is the entertainer of choice for the players and sponsors at the Irish Open. If you are fond of a flutter, you will no doubt have encountered Jason at one of the many race meetings at Punchestown, Listowel, Limerick or Cork, to name but a few. In 2008, Jason was also a guest of honour at the Dubai Irish Festival, sharing the stage with the likes of Seamus Begley & Jim Muray, Duke Special and the Dubai Philharmonic Orchestra. His performance was described as "... an Irish Sandstorm hitting the Arabian Desert".

Jason's show is the only one of it's kind in the country covering everyone from Tom Jones and Westlife, to Johnny Cash, The Beatles and Elvis. An amalgamation of true classic songs and covering all genres – you are guaranteed to have some very happy wedding guests indeed.

Your Entertainment will include background music prior to the show commencing, a 1.5 hour live show, followed by a disco for 1.5hours. To be in with your chance to win Jason Fallon performing on your Wedding simply answer to the following question: "How long did Jason Fallon play for Joe Dolan as a Drummer?". For the answer visit www.jasonfallon.ie and email your answer to us. Then Like our Facebook Page and you're in the draw! Best of Luck!
